JOSIAH TURNER, JR., EDITOR.

HISTORY OF A SCRIPTURAL PANORAMA—A TRAVELING SHOW—THE UNEDUCATED.

Mark Twain tells the following entertaining history of the Scriptural Panorama:

There was a fellow traveling around in that country, said Mr. Nickerson, with a moral religious show—a sort of scriptural panorama—and he hired a wooden-headed old slab to play the piano for him. After the first night's performance, the showman says:

"My friend, you seem to know pretty much all the tunes there are, and you worry along first rate. But then, don't you notice that some times last night the piece you happened to be playing was a little rough on the proprieties, so to speak; didn't seem to jibe with the general gait of the picture that was passing at the time, as it were—was a little foreign to the subject, you know—as if you didn't either trump or follow suit, you understand?"

"Well, no," the fellow said; he hadn't noticed, but it might be; he had played along just as it came handy.

So they put it up that the simple old dummy was to keep his eye on the panorama after that, and as soon as a stunning picture was reeled out he was to fit it, to a dot, with a piece of music that would help the audience to get the idea of the subject and warm them up like a camp-meeting revival. That sort of thing would corral their sympathies, the showman said.

There was a big audience that night—mostly middle-aged and old people who belonged to the church, and took a strong interest in Bible matters, and the balance were pretty much young bucks and heifers—they always came out strong on panoramas, you know, because it gives them a chance to taste one another's mug in the dark.

Well, the showman began to swell himself up for his lecture, and the old mud-dobber tackled the piano and ran his fingers up and down once or twice to see that she was all right and the fellows behind the curtain commenced to grind out the panorama. The showman balanced his weight on his right foot, and propped his hands over his hips, and flung his eyes over his shoulder at the scenery, and said:

"Ladies and gentlemen, the painting now before you illustrates the beautiful and touching parable of the Prodigal Son. Observe the happy expression just breaking over the features of the poor, suffering youth—so worn and weary with his long march; note also the ecstacy beaming from the uplifted countenance of the aged father, and the joy that sparkles in the eyes of the excited group of youth and maidens, and seems ready to burst into the welcoming chorus from their lips. The lesson, my friends, is as solemn and instructive as the story is tender and beautiful."

The mud-dobber was all ready, and when the second speech was finished, struck up:

"Oh, we'll all get blind drunk,
When Johnny comes marching home!"

Some of the people giggled, and some groaned a little. The showman couldn't say a word. He looked at the pianist sharp, but he was all lovely and serene—he didn't know there was anything out of gear.

The panorama moved on, and the showman drummed up his grit and started in fresh.

"Ladies and gentlemen, the fine picture now unfolding itself to your gaze, exhibits one of the most notable events in Bible history—our Saviour and his disciples upon the Sea of Galilee. How grand, how awe-inspiring are the reflections which the subject invokes! What sublimity of faith is revealed to us in this lesson from the sacred writings! The Saviour rebukes the angry waves, and walks securely upon the bosom of the deep!"

All around the house they were whispering: "Oh, how lovely, how beautiful!" and the orchestra let himself out again:

"Oh, life on the ocean wave,
And a home on the rolling deep!"

There was a good deal of honest snickering turned on this time, and considerable groaning, and one or two old deacons got up and went out. The showman grated his teeth, and cursed the piano man to himself, but the fellow sat there like a knot on a log, and seemed to think he was doing first rate.

After things got quiet, the showman thought he would make one more stagger at it, anyhow, though his confidence was beginning to get mighty shaky. The supes started the panorama to grinding along again, and he says:

"Ladies and gentlemen, this exquisite painting illustrates the raising of Lazarus from the dead by our Saviour. The subject has been handled with rare ability by the artist, and such touching sweetness and tenderness of expression has he thrown into it, that I have known peculiarly sensitive persons to be even affected to tears by looking at it. Observe the half confused, half inquiring look upon the countenance of the awakened Lazarus. Observe, also, the attitude and expression of the Saviour, who takes him gently by the sleeve of his shroud with one hand, while he points with the other toward the distant city."

Before anybody could get off an opinion in the case, that innocent old ass at the piano struck up:

"Coons, git up, Willis's Rid-d-ley,
And go along with me!"

It was rough on the audience, you bet, All the solemn old flats got up in a huff to go, and everybody else laughed till the windows rattled.

The showman went down and grabbed the orchestra and shook him up, and says:

"That lets you out, you know, you chowder-headed old clam! Go to the doorkeeper and get your money, and cut your stick—vamose the ranche! Ladies and gentlemen, circumstances over which I have no control, compel me prematurely to dismiss."

HOW TO CATCH COONS.—The coon is taken by setting traps in the paths by the streams where they live; bait with fresh fish or salt codfish roasted, so as to give it a strong smell. Another way: Take one ounce of valerian, one-half ounce of commercial musk, one pint whisky; mix together and let it stand two weeks; put a little on your bait or rub on the under side of the trap pan. They smell it, and sticking their paws in to find it, get caught.—R. W. P.

ABOLITION OF INTERNAL REVENUE.—In the House of Representatives on Monday, Hon. S. S. Cox, of New York, introduced a resolution, which was referred to the committee on ways and means, providing for the abolition of the internal revenue system, and assignment of each State's quota of taxes to support the general government to the several States, to be collected by them and paid into the federal treasury.

IN WILMINGTON, N. C,
MONDAY, JAN. 16th, 1871.

10,000 Nos. Put in the Wheel;
110 Awards Drawn.

Whole Certificates, $5; Halves $2 50; Quarters, $1 25.

WHAT THE CITY PRESS SAY:

PRIZE DRAWING.—Quite a crowd assembled at the Theatre yesterday noon, to witness the Grand Drawing of the North Carolina Beneficial Association. There were 100 prizes in all, and little rolls of paper separating these were placed in a wheel on one side, while the tickets were in another wheel opposite to the former. Between the two was a table, at which sat the Judges and Mr. John London, Commissioner. The wheels were made with glass sides, so that everything within them could be seen and were securely locked, until the drawing began. This was done by means of two little boys, who were securely blindfolded, one drawing a number from one of the wheels and the other the prize to correspond with it. There is no question but that the drawing was done in a perfectly fair and just manner.—Wilmington Daily Journal, Dec. 2nd.

THE GRAND DRAWING YESTERDAY.—The grand single number distribution of the N. C. Beneficial Association, which took place at the Theatre yesterday, at 3 o'clock, was the all-absorbing theme during the day. The drawing took place in public, a committee having been selected from the audience to act with the Commissioner in keeping an account of the prizes and to see that it was conducted fairly. Quite a respectable crowd was present to witness the drawing. The following numbers drew the principal prizes: No. 4418, $5,000; No. 6006, $2,500; No. 5776, $1,500; No. 2842, $2,000; No. 1407, $2,000; No. 4412, $1,000; No. 1496, $500. The Certificate No. 1407 was sold to a citizen of Wilmington, N. C.—Wilmington Morning Star, Dec. 2nd.

IN THIS, OUR SECOND GRAND DISTRIBUTION,
110 AWARDS MUST BE DRAWN!

OXFORD HIGH SCHOOL,
Oxford, N. C.

J. H. HORNER, } Associate Principals.
R. H. GRAVES, }

THIS SCHOOL which has been for the last twenty years under the exclusive charge of J. H. Horner, will henceforth be conducted under the joint supervision of the above principals, with competent assistant instructors in every department.

The course of study has been extended, and boys will be thoroughly fitted for advanced classes in College, especial reference being had to the qualifications requisite to admission into the Senior classes in the University of Virginia, of Washington Lee University. The latter of which has again conferred upon the school the honor of a scholarship in that Institution.

A regular course of study in Natural Science, Commercial Science and the Modern Languages has been added to the school for those students, who, desiring to acquire only a complete business education may wish to substitute these studies for Latin and Greek.

No pains will be spared to render the instruction in the school efficient and to furnish to students the most ample facilities for thorough preparation for College or for the acquisition of a good business education; and the principals flatter themselves that their long and successful career as teachers is a sufficient guarantee that the school will be in all respects worthy the public confidence and support.

The Spring Session will open the second Monday in January.

Circulars containing terms and full particulars furnished upon application to either of the principals.

ALAMANCE COURT.

We spent three days of the present week at Alamance Court, where we met more than a hundred of our late fellow prisoners, all intent on electing the Governor and his chieftains Kirk, Burgen, Stephen White, Red-Eye and Clerk Bill Albright, and all the aiders and abettors in the late Holden-Kirk enormities. It would have done the Legislature good to see, as we saw, a whole people boiling over with just indignation at the Governor and Judge Pearson, to whom they justly ascribe all the outrages heaped upon them by Kirk and Burgen.

More people assembled on Tuesday at Graham, than have been seen together in Alamance for ten years.

We spoke on Monday to a large crowd in the Court House. Judge Kerr spoke on Tuesday in the open air; the Court House could not have held a fifth of the people present. The Judge made one of his best speeches. When he concluded it could not have been well for a policy man to have uttered a sentiment against the impeachment of the Governor, or the Chief Justice. Among his hearers was more than a hundred of Holden's victims, who suffered in Kirk's prison for the good of the whole people.

In another column we give the names of Holden's victims and Kirk's prisoners. The list is not complete; those omitted will please send us their names. Many of them were prisoners for five weeks, marched to Caswell and back again, then to Raleigh or to Salisbury, under the bayonets of Kirk's men. Three of them, Rogers, Murray and Patton, were hung up by the neck "in the woods." Two of them, Gray and Wheelon, were ironed in the common jail like felons are after conviction. Some of them had their homes visited and searched by Alex. Ruffin, John Pyles and other negro soldiers; the wife of one was cursed by a negro soldier, who pointed his pistol at her head and threatened to shoot her unless she gave him something to eat.

Negro soldiers arrested others with cocked pistols presented at their heads and marched them off to Kirk's camp, leaving their wives and little ones in an agony of suspense for five long weeks.

Some thirty of these prisoners were released by Judge Brooks on a habeas corpus. The moral effect of this upon Kirk and Holden was such as to force them to discharge all the others, knowing if they did not it would be done by the Judge.

Judge Tourgee did not disappoint many in refusing to hold Court in Alamance. He did not arrive until Tuesday mid-day; on Wednesday evening he announced that there would be no court, or rather no jury or grand jury for the term.

The reason was that Holden, Pearson, Red-Eye Albright, Stephen White, and many white and black Radicals of Alamance, would have been indicted for their brutal assaults made upon quiet and unoffending men, by Kirk, Burgen, & Co.

On Wednesday, at a meeting of the Conservatives, Col. McAllister was nominated for the House of Commons, and Capt. James A. Graham for the Senate for Alamance and Guilford. Better nominations could not have been made. They are both young men of worth, intelligence and great personal popularity. Their nomination was acceptable to every man of the party. Alamance will give them three hundred majority.

GOVERNOR HOLDEN AND THE STANDARD.

Gov. Holden wrote letters to Mr. S. F. Phillips and each of the members of the House of Representatives from Wake county, which, in substance "deny the fact that the Standard newspaper is his organ in the sense charged, and denying that the article in that paper demanding and daring impeachment were authorized by him."

Oh! shades of Littlefield, Martin and Ashley! The Governor repudiates the Standard and denies that it is his organ! He tells the Pilgrim, in the sweet and expressive language of the poet, "Shake not thy hoary locks at me, thou canst not say I did it."

But why has the Governor waited until articles of impeachment are brought up in the House and passed, to make this denial? The article in question appeared some days ago, but the Governor has not mentioned it before, and more, the demanding and daring was made more than once by the Standard. Why did the Governor not request that such publications should cease, and write to the public at the time that he must not be held responsible for what the Standard should or should not do or say? Ah, Governor, you must not think you can throw the Pilgrim overboard in that way. He and the rest of the cormorants whom you have helped to fasten upon the State to suck her vitals will stick to you like the shirt of Nessus, and will be as immovable as Plymouth Rock.

Don't forget, that the election for Senator and two members of the House of Representatives takes place in Caswell on Saturday, Dec. 24th.

THE SENATORIAL VACANCY IN GUILFORD AND ALAMANCE.

The Standard of Tuesday has an editorial in regard to the ousting of Major Smith from his seat as Senator from the 26th district, in which it is attempted to be shown that there was great injustice done to Major Smith, and partisan partiality manifested on the part of the Senate in its action in the case.

The Standard very disingenuously argues that if Mr. Smith should be unseated, Mr. Gilmer should be also, as they represent in common the same counties. Without a knowledge of the facts in the case, this may appear plausible, but the fallacy of the argument will be seen at once when the grounds on which the Senate acted are known. We will state these grounds as briefly and plainly as we are able, not to refute or counteract anything the Standard may have said on the subject, but to show to any who may be wrongly impressed by the line of argument of those who opposed the course pursued by the Senate and adopted by the Standard, the justice of the action of the Senate.

In the first place, the military occupancy of Alamance county on the 4th of August last, and the consequent invalidity of the vote given in that county, were admitted facts about which, we believe, there was no controversy; at any rate that question was settled by the action of the General Assembly in the case of the member of the House of Representatives from that county.

The next question, the vote of Alamance being thrown out, what shall be done with the vote of Guilford? That of course was a valid vote, and as only valid votes can be counted in elections, the valid votes of the Senatorial district elected Mr. Gilmer and Mr. Moore, and rejected Mr. Welker and Maj. Smith. These being rejected by the valid vote of the district, of course neither of them had any right to a seat in the Senate, or any further connection with the matter, any more than any other defeated candidate in any other county or district had to the seats for which they were beaten.

Thus far, by both law and logic, it is clear that neither Mr. Welker nor Mr. Smith has any claim to a seat in the Senate, and that Mr. Gilmer and Dr. Moore had. Mr. Gilmer appeared and claimed his seat and obtained it rightfully. There was no question as to his right to his seat and there can be none now. She is their by a majority of the valid votes of his district; and it would not have changed his claim, if the invalid votes of Alamance had been counted. With Dr. Moore it was different. He was elected by the valid vote of his district, but with the vote of Alamance added it changed the result, and although this did not affect the legality of Mr. Moore's claims to his seat, it gave Maj. Smith a shadow of claim, and rendered a decision of the Senate necessary, and that decision was rightfully and properly made, namely that Maj. Smith was not entitled to a seat as Senator from Alamance and Guilford.

Dr. Moore having declined to contest or claim the seat, rendered a new election necessary to fill the vacancy. That his declining to take the seat did not give Major Smith a right to it, is clear, any more than the resignation of Col. Clarke gave his opponent in the election a right to the vacancy which his resignation caused in the 10th district.

Mr. Gilmer was elected by a majority of the valid votes of his district and took his seat.

Dr. Moore was elected by a majority of the valid votes of his district and declined to take his seat.

Mr. Welker was beaten by a majority of the valid votes of his district and could not, therefore, claim a seat.

Maj. Smith was beaten by a majority of the valid votes of his district, and could not therefore, rightfully take his seat.

So the case stood, hence the Legislature rightfully ordered a new election to fill the vacancy caused by Dr. Moore declining the seat to which he was elected by the valid votes of his district.

The following is a list of citizens of Alamance county, who were arrested and imprisoned by Kirk and Burgen, under orders and instructions of W. W. Holden, without process of law of any kind, and against whom no evidence was afterwards produced in all the investigations had in regard to them, with only a very few exceptions, and that was only the evidence of John W. Long, the reputed hog thief:

Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

NIGHT SESSION.

THURSDAY, Dec. 15, 1870.

Senate met at half past seven.
Mr. Graham in the Chair.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

Consideration of the bill concerning a Convention of the people.

Mr. Cowles moved to strike out section 8 and insert the following, to-wit:

It shall be unlawful for any person to vote in any other than the township in which he resides, and it shall be lawful for any citizen of the State to challenge the legality of votes in the presence of the judges or inspectors of election at the ballot box on the day of election; said judges or inspectors shall be the judges of the same.

Mr. Robbins of Rowan, offered the following as a substitute for section 5, to-wit:

That the inspectors of election mentioned in section 1st of this act, shall be appointed by the Commissioners of each county respectively, at a special meeting to be held on the last Monday in January 1871, and said Commissioners shall, at the same meeting appoint a Registrar of voters for each voting precinct or township, whose duty it shall be to revise the existing registration books of his precinct or township in such manner that said books shall show an accurate list of all electors previously registered in such precinct or township, and still residing therein, without requiring such electors to be registered anew; and such registrars shall also, at all times after his appointment up to and on the day of election aforesaid, keep open said books, and shall be at the polls on said day with said books for the registration of any electors residing in such precinct or township and entitled to registration, whose names have never before been registered in such precinct or township, or do not appear on the revised list. No certificates of registration shall be given, and no elector shall be entitled to register or to vote in any other precinct or township than the one in which he is an actual and bona fide resident on the day of election.

Any person offering to vote, although his name may be on the registration books may be challenged as to his right to vote on the day of election; and the question shall be decided by the inspectors of the box and the registrar of the precinct or township, before the ballot is received. Which was adopted for the substitute offered by Mr. Cowles and inserted in the bill.

Mr. Latham moved to amend section 7, line 2, after "twenty" insert "one" (which provides that the number of delegates shall be 121), and add at the end of the section, "and the county of Dare shall be entitled to one delegate," which was adopted.

Sections 8, 9 and 10 were considered and perfected.

On motion of Mr. Robbins of Rowan, its further consideration was postponed until to-morrow at half past ten o'clock.

On motion the Senate adjourned.

SENATE.

FRIDAY, Dec. 16th, 1870.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Norment, Senator from Robeson.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Gilmer, from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported favorably on the bill concerning elections in this State.

On his motion, the rules were suspended for the purpose of putting the bill on its several readings.

Mr. Olds moved to amend by adding the following proviso to-wit:

Provided, That all elections hereafter held under the sanction of this act shall continue two days in all towns and cities where the population is over three thousand souls, which was rejected, the rules were suspended again, the main question was ordered and the bill passed its third readingby a vote of 29 to 11.

Mr. Graham moved that the bill be engrossed and sent to the House at once.

Moore moved to lay the motion on the table.

Mr. Graham demanded the previous question on his motion, which was sustained.

The President ruled that the motion to lay on the table, was next in order.

Mr. Graham appealed from the decision of the Chair, which was sustained.

The vote was then taken on the motion of Mr. Graham to transmit the bill at once to the House, which prevailed by a vote of 34 to 9. Messrs. Beasley, Brogden, Eppes, (col.,) Flythe, Hyman, (col.,) King, Moore, Olds and Price, (col.,) 9, voted in the negative.

Mr. Graham, from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported favorably on the bill authorizing private stockholders of railroad corporations to purchase the State's interest in said corporations, with a recommendation to print the same which was concurred in.

SPECIAL ORDERS.

Bill to submit the question of calling a convention, to the people, and for other purposes.

The consideration of section 11 being first in order, was amended and adopted.

Mr. Moore moved to strike out the entire 12th section. [This section restricts the convention as to the Homestead provision.]

Mr. Jones said he desired to know if there were any Senators present who intended to vote to turn the convention loose on the Homestead, and, in order to ascertain, demanded the yeas and nays, which were granted, and the motion was rejected.

Messrs. Beasley, Flythe, King, Moore, and Price, col., voted in the affirmative, but before the vote was announced, with the exception of Price, changed their votes to the negative, and Mr. Lehman changed his vote from the negative to the affirmative. The other sections of the bill were considered, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Robbins, of Rowan, it was ordered to be engrossed, printed, and made the special order for to-morrow at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Troy moved that when the Senate adjourn it adjourn to meet to-night at 7:15, which prevailed.

On motion the Senate proceeded to elect a Committee of Five Senators, to whom will be referred the message of the House relating to the impeachment of W. W. Holden, Governor of North Carolina, who are to consider and report upon the same, and they are instructed to prepare and report rules of practice and procedure for the Senate when sitting for the trial of impeachment. The election resulted in the selection of the following Senators, to-wit: Messrs. Warren, Graham, Lehman, Dargan, and Merrimon.

On motion of Mr. McClammy, the rules were suspended, and the bill concerning Inspector for the City of Wilmington was taken up and passed its third reading.

Leave of absence was granted to Messrs. Beasley, Flythe and Hawkins.

On motion of Mr. Graham, the bill from the House fixing the per diem and mileage of officers and members of the General Assembly was taken up. (This bill proposes to allow $5 per diem and 20 cents mileage to members.)

Mr. Albright said he was in favor of $5 per diem, but a large number of Senators were in favor of $5, but in order to effect a compromise and settle the question at once he would vote for $4, and moved to strike out $5 and insert $4 and 20 cents mileage and insert 15 cents.

Mr. Fleming moved an amendment to the amendment by substituting $3 per diem for $4 and 10 cents mileage for 15 cents.

The previous question was called and sustained.

The motion to strike out prevailed and $4 per diem and 15 cents mileage was inserted, the bill passed its second reading and was placed on its third reading.

Mr. Norment moved to amend so as to allow each member to fix his own per diem, (To take little or much or nothing as he may choose) which was rejected and the bill passed, was ordered to be engrossed and transmitted to the House without delay.

On motion, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

FRIDAY, Dec. 16th, 1870.

House called to order at the usual hour. Prayer by Rev. Mr. Collis, of the House. Journal of yesterday read and approved.

The Chair announced Messrs. Ashe and Fisher as Commissioners to proceed to Goldsboro' to take depositions in the Wayne county contested election.

Communications were read from the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the Librarian, giving information about their respective offices.

Mr. Powell from the Committee on Engrossed Bills, Mr. McNeill, from the Committee on Propositions and Grievances, and Mr. Welch, from the Committee on Internal Improvements submitted reports from their respective committees.

By Mr. Marler: A resolution concerning the meetings of the House; placed on calendar.

Mr. McCauley, from the Committee on Counties and Townships, and Mr. Rankin, from the Committee on Salaries and Fees, submitted reports from their Committees.

By Mr. Johnston, of Buncombe: A bill to suppress secret political organizations; placed on calendar.

Mr. Brown (by request,) introduced a bill to call a Convention to amend the Constitution of the State. The bill was read and referred to the Committee on Constitutional Reform.

Mr. Strudwick, from the Committee on Finance, submitted a report upon various bills and resolutions, which were placed on the calendar.

On motion of Mr. Rankin, the rules were suspended and the Senate bill directing the Governor to issue writs for an election for Senator in the 26th Senatorial district on the 24th of December, was taken up.

Mr. Justice moved to lay the bill on the table; lost.

Mr. Rankin urged the passage of the bill.

Mr. Hargrove opposed it.

After some discussion the bill passed its third reading.

A communication was received from the Superintendent of Public Works and ordered to be printed.

On motion of Mr. Marler, the rules were suspended and the resolution that the House should meet at 10 A. M. and adjourn at 2 P. M.; meet again at 7 P. M. and adjourn at 9 P. M., was taken up.

Mr. York moved to strike out the hours of adjournment.

On motion of Mr. Lyon, the resolution was indefinitely postponed.

On motion of Mr. Powell, the rules were suspended and the bill authorizing the Commissioners of Chatham county to levy a special tax and to appoint a tax collector was taken up.

Cawthorne, col., moved to strike out the provision for a tax of 90 cents on each poll.

The yeas and nays were called and the amendment was rejected by a vote of yeas 33, nays 43.

Mr. Powell said as there was some doubt of the constitutionality of the bill, he moved to refer to the Committee on Judiciary; carried.

On motion of Mr. Jordan, the rules were suspended and the bill authorizing the Commissioners of Person County to levy a special tax, was taken up and passed its third reading by a vote of yeas 43, nays 16.

Mr. Robinson, from the Committee on Enrolment, reported several bills and resolutions as being correctly enrolled.

On motion of Mr. Kelly, of Moore, the rules were suspended and the resolution in favor of the Sheriff of Moore County, was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Jones, of Caldwell, the rules were suspended and the bill to incorporate the North Carolina Railroad and Manufacturing Company, was taken up and made the special order for Saturday, January 14th, 1871, at 12 o'clock.

On motion of Mr. McNeill, the rules were suspended, and the bill relieving all sheriffs and ex-sheriffs in arrears for taxes for 1868-'69 and '70, was taken up and passed its several readings.

Mr. Ashe, from the Judiciary Committee, reported favorably upon the resolution in regard to the improvement of the Cape Fear river, referred to in a communication from the Governor in reference to the matter.

On motion of Mr. Brooks, the rules were suspended, and the bill authorizing the Commissioners of Brunswick county to issue bonds, was taken up and passed its second reading, by a vote of yeas 53, nays 15.

CALENDAR.

Bill to enlarge the powers of County Commissioners in certain cases, was taken up, and, on motion of Mr. Justice, was laid on the table.

On motion of Mr. Settle, the rules were suspended and the Senate bill concerning elections in this State was taken up, and, on motion of Mr. Sparrow, was referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections.

CALENDAR (RESUMED.

Bill to amend the charter of the Western Division of the Western N. C. R. R., was taken up. [The bill provides that the Western Division of the Western N. C. R. R. be empowered to issue bonds with coupons attached, running for such terms of years as they may deem expedient, and bearing interest at a rate not greater than 8 per cent per annum, and to make and deliver a deed or mortgage conveying the whole or a part of the right, title and interest of the company in any or all the estate both real and personal belonging to it, to the purchasers of the bonds of the company, conditioned for securing the payment of the bonds at maturity, and also to pledge the profits of the Company to the payment of the interest on the bonds. The bill also provides that not more than $100,000 of bonds shall be issued and sold at any one time. The company shall have the right to issue said bonds from time to time until the road is completed to its Western terminus at or near the Ducktown Copper Mines. That to indemnify the State for all moneys which have been or may hereafter be expended in this road, a bonus or tax shall be paid by the company, of one-tenth of one per cent on all moneys collected from passengers.

When the bill is perfected it will be published in full]

Messrs. Welch and Justice made remarks of length in advocacy of the immediate passage of the bill.

Mr. Crawford said that he would be compelled to record his vote against the bill.

Mr. Waring moved to postpone until the 24th of January.

Mr. Bryson opposed the motion and urged the passage of the bill.

Mr. Lockee hoped Mr. Waring's motion would prevail.

Mr. Johnston of Buncombe argued in favor of the passage of the bill, but was willing that gentlemen should have ample time to consider the matter. He moved to amend the motion to postpone by making the bill special order for Tuesday next at 11 A. M.

Mr. Tomlinson thought that gentlemen before acting upon this matter should consider the way in which the present State debt was to be paid. He thought gentlemen should present some plan to extricate the State from the difficulties the last Legislature plunged her into before this bill was considered.

Mr. Harris of Guilford, favored Mr. Waring's motion.

Mr. Johnston's amendment to Mr. Waring's motion was put to a vote and adopted.

BUCHU.

[From Dispensatory of the United States.]

Diosma Crenata—Buchu Leaves.

Properties.

Their odor is strong, diffusive, and somewhat aromatic, their taste bitterish and analogous to mint.

Medical Properties and Uses.

Buchu leaves are gently stimulant, with a peculiar tendency to the urinary organs.

They are given in complaints of the Urinary Organs, such as Gravel, chronic Catarrh of the Bladder, Morbid Irritation of the Bladder and Urethra, Disease of the Prostatic Gland, and Retention or Incontinence of Urine, from a lose of tone in the parts concerned in its evacuation. The remedy has also been recommended in Dyspepsia, chronic Rheumatism, Cutaneous Affections, and Dropsy.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu

is used by persons from the ages of 18 to 25, and from 35 to 55, or in the decline or change of life; after confinement, or labor pains; bed-wetting in children.

In affections peculiar to females, this is unequaled by any other remedy, in chlorosis, or retention, irregularity, painfulness or suppression of customary evacuations, ulcerated or schirrous State of the Uterus, leucorrhœa, or whites.

Diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys

Gravel, and Dropsical Swellings,

This medicine increases the power of Digestion, and excites the absorbents into healthy action, by which the watery or calcareous deposition, and all unnatural enlargements are reduced, as well as pain and inflammation.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu

has cured every case of diabetes in which it has been given. Irritation of the neck of the bladder, and inflammation of the kidneys, ulceration of the kidneys and bladder, retention of urine, diseases of the prostrate gland, stone in the bladder, calculus, gravel, brick dust deposit, and mucus or milky discharges, and for enfeebled and delicate constitutions, of both sexes, attended with the following symptoms: indisposition to exertion, loss of memory, difficulty of breathing, weak nerves, trembling, horror of disease, wakefulness, dimness of vision, pain in the back, hot hands, flushing of the body, dryness of the skin, eruption on the face, pallid countenance, universal lassitude of the muscular system, &c.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu

is diuretic and blood purifying, and cures all diseases arising from habits of dissipation, excesses and imprudences in life, impurities of the blood, &c., superseding copaiba in affections for which it is used, such as gonorrhœa, gleets of long standing, and syphilitic affections—in these diseases, used in connection with

Helmbold's Rose Wash.

Sold by all druggists and dealers every where. Beware of counterfeits! "A Z" for Heimbold's. Take no other. Price $1.25 per bottle, or 6 bottles for $6.50. Delivered to any address. Describe symptoms in all communications.

PROF. CHANDLER of New York City, in a lecture delivered by him at Cooper Institute, March 18, 1870, said:

"It is hardly necessary to enlarge upon the terrible accidents which have resulted from the use of unsafe kerosene; you have only to read the newspapers from day to day to see them. It is stated by some that these are exaggerated; that these accidents never occur, and that you and I never had a friend burned to death; still we do have an enormous number of terrible accidents from petroleum. In the last seven months of 1869 there were fifty five kerosene accidents in New York, resulting in twenty-three deaths, eighteen serious injuries and fourteen slight ones. The total result for the year 1869, for the City of New York which I myself have cut from newspapers is fifty-two fatal accidents from dangerous kerosene, fifty severe and six slight, in all 108 persons to my knowledge, from my own reading have been injured by kerosene in one year."

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 17, 1870.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

Jno. Tann. N. Ramsay, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

For. Doc.—We tender our thanks to our new Representative in Congress, Hon. John Manning, Jr., for a copy of the constitution of the United States, with the amendments thereto, to which is added Jefferson's Manual, Standing Rules and orders of the House and Barclay's Digest.

J. C. Palmer.—Our old friend, the Jeweler, advertises in another column. It appeared a day or so ago, but we inadvertently failed to call attention to it. Mr. Palmer has been in the jewelry business in our city for thirty years, and is so extensively and favorably known that it is needless for us to say anything of him.—We will say, however, that his stock is always complete, including all the latest and most fashionable styles. Don't forget him.

Mrs. Oates Coming.—Mr. Titus, business manager for Mrs. James A. Oates, has, we learned, telegraphed the proprietors, engaging Tucker Hall for one week, commencing January 9th 1871. Her company is now organized as an Opera Troupe and is stated by the Agent to be a very strong one, the members all celebrated for excellent voice and artistic talent.

Bibles Received. We learned from Col. R. W. Best yesterday, that those large and beautiful family Bibles, for which many of our citizens subscribed some weeks ago, have arrived and will be delivered as fast as possible. We got ours yesterday, and find that it comes up to the description fully. And we consider it cheap at the price sold at.

Mr. Best has been appointed General Agent for North Carolina for all the publications of Wm. Bryant of Philadelphia, by whom the Bibles he is selling are gotten up.

The Impeachment Trial.—We are informed that Mr. John Sidman, for a number of years connected with the newspaper press of this State, intends reporting all the proceedings in the impeachment trial of Governor Holden, and will publish the same in substantial book form for preservation. Mr. Sidman is, perhaps, as well qualified for the undertaking as any man in the State.

Knights of Pythias.—Mr. Wm. A. Johnson has been installed by Supreme Chancellor Reed as Deputy Grand Chancellor, Knights of Pythias for North Carolina. This opens the way to parties in any portion of the State to organize Lodges. Those who desire to do so can be furnished all necessary information as to charter, fee, cost of Lodge furniture, &c., by addressing Mr. Johnson at Wilmington, N. C.

Think of it! In less than five years, says the Spirit of Myrtle, one Lodge of, perhaps, a hundred members, has expanded into an order embracing not less than one hundred and twenty thousand members, with a present rate of increase averaging ten thousand per month.

Registration.—It may not be out of to remind the voters of Raleigh, and all who may feel an interest in the city government, that, according to the present law on the subject, the registration of voters of the city will begin next Monday. There is a bill now before the Legislature, we believe, to amend the city charter, and also a general bill putting the time of all municipal elections in the State to some time about the first of May in each year. But if neither of these bills should be passed and ratified, the registration will begin on Monday, in the city, as above stated, in pursuance of existing laws, and it will be well for the friends of reform in our city government to take steps to have an honest and fair registration. There have never, at any recent election, been less than 250 to 300 illegal votes cast in our municipal elections, and we hope the Legislature will hurry up the bill for our relief in that and other respects, but should this not be done in time, let proper steps be taken to prevent the large number of stragglers, who do not live here, and who have no interest here, from controlling the city government, as heretofore.

Where is the Money.—The good looking young man, who edits the local column of the Standard, said in his Wednesday's issue that one of the "fallen angels" of Raleigh had "risen up, Phœnix like, from the ashes" of her degradation and determined to "reform," and as an evidence of her good intentions had given to the Young Men's Christian Association, the sum of $400. The young men of the Association wish to know where the money is, as it has not reached their treasury yet; and if the donor gave the amount to said local for delivery, why he has not delivered it. Further information is wanted on this subject.

Save and mend the pieces, use "Spalding's Glue."

Fatal to the Teeth are all acrid preparations. They may bleach the enamel, but they at length dissolve and destroy it. The mild, genial but unfailing and preservative Sozodont, impregnated with the Saponin of the famous Soapbark Soap Tree, of Chili, is the only absolutely safe article of its kind in the market, and protects the Teeth from all destructive influences, as well as keeps them from tartar.

WHAT WILL GUILFORD DO?

On Saturday, the 24th inst., the people of Guilford and Alamance will be called upon to vote for a State Senator. The choice lies between Capt. Jno. A. Graham and Maj. Wm. A. Smith, commonly known as "Blow-your-horn Bill."

Which of these two will the district select to represent it?

Let us compare them, their merits and their claims.

Smith signed the ordinance of secession in 1861, and pledged his life, fortune and sacred honor to make it good. Notwithstanding this pledge, he never smelt gun powder, but sought to make secession good with other men's lives, fortunes, bodies and blood. He held the town of Smithfield under martial law, and at one time, no man could go in or out of the town without his pass.

Mounted on a fine bay mare, with a huntsman's horn swung to his side, and dogs following at his heels, he hunted down his neighbors' children, to catch them and put them in the army. He purchased his dogs from Mr. Bart Cone, of Nash county, for the sum of $600. These dogs run some men through Smith's mill pond, and were on tardy after them from one end of the county to the other.

Now, Major Smith is for "making treasonable orations." Since the war he has figured in several prominent transactions, and has "made a record."

He leased out the North Carolina Railroad for twenty years, before consulting the owners of it, who refused to sanction the bargain.

He advocated the election of Joseph W. Holden in the late Congressional contest. Bargen said he was in Holden's confidence in the outrages committed on the citizens of Alamance last summer. Landon Roberson says he induced him and others to vote, in the August election, at Gaulden's, when he knew they lived in Orange.

He boasted, on the Railroad, in the presence of several gentlemen that "we" (the Republicans of Johnston) voted 200 negro women, dressed in men's clothes, in the election of 1868.

Negro women were detected, dressed in men's clothes, in Granville, in the late special election; let the people of Alamance and Guilford look out for the same trick next Saturday.

Last winter, when George W. Swepson was summoned before the Bragg committee, and was in Raleigh to go before them on a Wednesday, Maj. Smith, after a long talk with Gov. Holden, informed Swepson that he would be arrested if he remained in Raleigh, and provided him a special train on Tuesday night on which to leave the city and the State.

These are some of the prominent points in Major Smith's record since he hunted men in Johnston, with dogs, during the war. He is the Governor's candidate for the Senate and can represent him, but he cannot represent a majority of the good people of Alamance and Guilford.

Captain Graham is a young man possessing every requisite for an able, faithful and reliable representative of the people. Like Mr. Gilmer, he is a descendant of a long line of ancestors, whose lives and labors were spent in serving and promoting the interest of the people of that part of the State. The name of Gilmer and of Graham were familiar in the days of 1776, and were engaged in the great struggle for independence. From that day to this they have been known in all the prominent events of the country, and the blood has not detoriorated in their descendants of to-day.

Capt. Graham will make an excellent, reliable Senator for Alamance and Guilford. He may be relied on to stand up for the people, to redress their wrongs and properly punish their oppressors.

Let every man go to the polls; let no one be deceived. A vote for Major Smith is an endorsement of Holden's administration, his outrages in Alamance and Caswell, Littlefield, Swepson, Penitentiary swindle and all.

People's B. & L. Association.—At the regular monthly meeting of the People's Building and Loan Association, last night, ten shares of the stock were redeemed at 102 and 100. This we should call pretty good, for the Company.

An Established Remedy.—"Brown's Bronchial Troches"—are widely known as an established remedy for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, and other troubles of the Throat and lungs. Their good reputation and extensive use has brought out imitations, represented to be the same. Obtain only "Brown's Bronchial Troches."

An Absolute Safeguard.

Invalids, broken down in health and spirits by Chronic Dyspepsia, or suffering from the terrible exhaustion which follows the attacks of acute disease, the testimony of thousands who have been raised as by a miracle from a similar state of prostration by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is a sure guarantee that by the same means you too may be Strengthened and restored. But to those who stand in peril of epidemics, to all who, by reason of exposure, privation, and unaccustomed climate or unhealthy pursuits, may at any moment be stricken down, the paragraph is most particularly and emphatically addressed. You, who are thus situated, are profferred an absolute safeguard against the danger that menaces you. Your appetite, the system with this harmless medicinal stimulant and Alterative, and you will be forearmed against the maladies whose seeds float around you in the air unless Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are not only a standard Tonic and Alterative throughout the United States, but they are accredited by the certificates of the most distinguished citizens of the Union, to the people of all other lands in Canada, Australia and the West Indies, they are gradually taking place of all other stomachics, whether native or foreign, and as surely as truth is progressive and demonstration overthrows doubt, they will eventually supersede every other Invigorant and Restorative now employed in medicinal practice.

Extract of a speech delivered by Mr. Crawford, of Rowan, in the House of Representatives on Wednesday the 14th of December, 1870, upon the Resolution to impeach W. W. Holden, Governor of North Carolina:

Mr. Speaker: It is with considerable reluctance that I rise to offer a few remarks to the Representatives of this Commonwealth, upon the all-absorbing question now pending before us. I have the honor, sir, to represent a constituency of whom I am proud, having received nearly all the votes cast by the yeomanry and soldiers of Rowan county, who, in the days of the Confederacy, under the leadership of the greatest military chieftan the world has ever seen, faced the deadly missles of war upon the Chickahominy and the James, and upon the heights of Gettysburg and Sharpsburg. My county furnished nearly twelve hundred soldiers. Of this number nearly two-thirds fill soldiers graves, and the bones of many are now bleaching on the hill tops, the plains, and the valleys, from the blue ocean to the mountains, from the Atlantic to the Mississippi. This sacrifice was made, Mr. Speaker, in vindication of the honor of North Carolina, in defence of the constitution of our fathers, and to uphold the great writ of habeas corpus, and the strong arm of civil liberty. But when we were overpowered by an enemy that could raise a million of men, and millions of dollars, we grounded our arms, returned our swords to their scabbards, and surrendered in good faith to conquerors. We took the oath of allegiance to the Government of the United States, and, returning to our homes, only asked that we might be let alone in our glory, to follow the quiet business pursuits of life; while yielding a ready obedience to the laws that we might be permitted to retrieve our ruined fortunes.

This, Mr. Speaker, is the constituency I have the honor to represent; and well might any gentleman on this floor boast of such a constituency. And, sir, when the gentlemen from Rutherford and Franklin insinuate that I represent Ku Klux marauders and midnight assassins, I resent it as an insult, and hurl it back in their faces.

It is a well known fact that my constituency has been one of moderation, having discarded, before I left home, everything like prejudice, passion or partizan feeling. Indeed, I had hoped that after meeting the members of this General Assembly we might avoid the great question of impeachment; but after careful study and a close investigation of the Constitution I have become fully satisfied that this could not be done consistently with our oath of office. I was persuaded, sir, that the Chief Magistrate of this great Commonwealth had trampled under foot the Constitution which he had sworn to defend, by ignoring the great writ of habeas corpus and thereby had rendered himself guilty of high crimes and misdemeanors, as charged in this Resolution. I believe, sir, in vindicating the supremacy of the civil law, and punishing all persons who recklessly disregard it. Let Ku Klux, and all other secret political organizations, who violate the laws of the land, by whipping, scourging, hanging and embruing their hands in their brothers' blood, suffer the penalty of the law; let them suffer after a fair and impartial trial by a jury of their countrymen. And, sir, if we believe the Chief Magistrate of the State has violated the law let him have a fair and impartial trial in the manner prescribed by the Constitution. If guilty let him be punished, if innocent it is but justice to himself that the world should know it. As a member of this General Assembly it becomes me to meet the grave responsibility devolved upon me, and, as a Representative of a loyal, civilized and christianized people, who have no other mode of redress for their wrongs and injuries they have suffered than that given by the Constitution and laws, to vote for this resolution. And in doing this I feel that I have discharged an obligation which was due to the people I represent, and have done no injustice to him who stands charged with high crimes and misdemeanors in office.

Office North Carolina Land Agency,
B. P. Williamson's New Store.

Mr. Editor, Sir:—I was delighted and agreeably surprised at the liberality of my old associates who have been connected with me in the Land business for the past two years, on reading their notice in to-days paper calling the attention of the public to the advertisement of the North Carolina Land Agency in B. P. Williamson's new store. I did not make the request; it was voluntary on their part, and shows what an indelible impression I must have made by my Boldly public exertions to induce immigration to our good old State while working in their behalf. I might have expected this from some of the old Directors and officers, but must say I did not think for one moment that the rest, one from abroad, and the reverend gentleman of this place would have contributed to this charitable fund of advertising at so much per dozen for the company.
R. KINGSLAND.

Office of
The North Carolina Land Agency,
B. P. Williamson's New Store,
Corner of Fayetteville and Martin Sts.
Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 1870.

To Land Owners.—The object of this correspondence is to commence now nearly two years, has been and will continue to be to induce immigration to our State, and to turn the tide from the West. West to our sunny South; also to call their attention to the superior advantages and inducements we hold out over all other States.

Now being the season of the year when farmers and others have leisure to travel, and many are visiting our State, examining farms with a view of purchasing, to come and make their homes with us, we would particularly request all land owners, who have land to sell or lease, and wish to find buyers for the same to call at our office or address us as below. Not a day goes by but what we receive letters making inquiry, and as it costs nothing to try to sell through this Agency, and so many are anxious to find customers that all can avail themselves of this opportunity of offering for sale land of every kind, our charges being only two and one half per cent. on gross amount of sales, for advertising and all other expenses included, and this only when a sale is perfected. Many, I know have a delicacy in offering their lands, as they do not wish their neighbors to know that their property is on the market. This is prevented in our office, no information given unless we know the parties to be buyers, and we do not advertise any farms or lands within the State unless requested to do so. I have been trying and making every effort since I came here two years ago, to induce our land owners to divide their large tracts, and sell one half or more to energetic men, with money, at a reasonable price, and on easy terms, to enable them to improve the part they bought. Some have taken my advice, and now the one-half is worth more than the whole was eighteen months ago. This is the true course to be pursued, as but very few buyers from the Northern States want more than from one hundred to three hundred acres in a farm, and will give more in proportion for such tracts, than they will for the large plantations of one thousand and two thousand acres. If you want to encourage immigration, send us a part of your lands for sale, that we may offer such inducements as will bring thousands to our State.

Friday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, Dec. 16.—In the Senate Drake resigned, to take effect on the 19th. Sumner presented a petition of citizens of New England against the annexation of San Domingo. The Committee reported adversely on the various bills for abolishing the income tax.
The House bill making appropriations for revenue cutters passed. The Southern Express Company charter was considered, and an amendment, that the franchise shall not exceed twenty years, and that the Company shall not be exempt from local taxation in States where it operates, was adopted.
The Committee on [illegible] call for any information relative to outrages on loyal citizens in North Carolina.
Drake took the floor in reply to Schurz's remarks, yesterday in regard to the Republican party, and was very bitter. Schurz made a brief reply.
In the House several bills on private claims were acted on. The Committee reported a bill, reducing the number of persons entitled to [illegible] from 10 to 5. Bill to impose an extra duty of [illegible] tion of duties on sugar, passed.
In Senate Executive session Pleasonton was confirmed.
Morton offered a resolution asking the President to communicate to that body all information in his possession relative to organized bodies of disloyal and evil disposed persons in North Carolina, which have in view or threaten resistance to the laws of the United States, or the denial to U. S. citizens the equal protection of the laws and their rights under the constitution, and also what murders and outrages for political purposes have been committed by such organizations. The resolution was adopted.
Roderick R. Butler from the first district of Tennessee was indicted here to-day by the Grand Jury for forgery, in signing the names of pensioners to documents whereby he obtained the pension money due them. A bench warrant was issued for him, and he will be arrested to-morrow. [illegible] they go; one by one.—Ed. Sentinel.]

FOREIGN.

London, Dec. 16.—It is thought that Manteuffel is marching on Caen and Cherbourg; dispatches from Havre, however, represent the retreat Southward as precipitate.
A balloon with mails from Paris has arrived at Honfleur. Gas in Paris is exausted.
It is announced that Austria, wishing to maintain existing guarantees for the peace of Europe, yet desirous of sparing the susceptibilities of Russia, adheres without reservation to the decision of the approaching conference.

Its plan is entirely free from any complications of notes, interest, &c., or uncertainties and disappointments of dividends, &c.

Its contracts are definite, clear, and impossible to be misunderstood, or misrepresented.

Its Policies contain all of the promises made by the Company, and are exceedingly liberal.

All the advantages and privileges which can be safely granted to the insured, are given by this deservedly popular and strong Company.

To agents of integrity, who are desirous of transacting the business of Life Insurance upon honest and correct principles, the Company is prepared to offer as liberal inducements as can be afforded by its low rates.

Applications for agencies or for policies may be made to the Company at its Branch Office in Philadelphia, or to

PIANO FORTES,

BALTIMORE, Md.

These Instruments have been before the Public for nearly Thirty Years, and upon their excellence alone obtained an unprecedented preeminence, which pronounces them unequaled.

Their

combines great power, sweetness and fine singing quality, as well as great purity of Intonation, and sweetness throughout the entire scale.

Their

is pliant and elastic, and entirely free from the stiffness found in so many Pianos.

IN WORKMANSHIP

they are unequaled, being none but the very best SEASONED MATERIAL, the large capital employed in our business enabling us to keep continually an immense stock of lumber, &c., on hand.

☞ All our SQUARE PIANOS have our New Improved Overstrung Scale and the AGRAFFE TREBLE.

☞ We would call special attention to our late improvements in GRAND PIANOS AND SQUARE GRANDS, PATENTED APRIL 14, 1868, which bring the Piano nearer perfection than has yet been attained.

EVERY PIANO FULLY WARRANTED FOR 5 YEARS.

;REPORTS,

Showing the standing and progress of all the Fire and Life Insurance Companies doing business in the United States.

There are many first rate Companies represented in North Carolina by clever, high-toned gentlemen; but it will be conceded by all, we think, that the

OLD ÆTNA LIFE

Has the lead in the State, and it is not to be wondered at. This Company has paid to Widows and Orphans in the last five years over

$177,000.00

In North Carolina,

And for this large sum but a mere pittance was paid by those who wisely provided for their loved ones. The Company being well established and well managed, it has gone steadily forward securing the confidence and patronage of a large number of the American people of all professions and grades.

BENEFIT LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

OF NEW YORK.

Cash Assets over $1,500,000,

ISSUES ALL FORMS OF NON FORFEITABLE, WHOLE LIFE AND ENDOWMENT POLICIES, on the Mutual Cash Plan, declaring dividends annually after the first annual premium paid. Assets exclusively Cash, with no portion of its reserve fund in premiums notes, consequently its "reserve" is stronger than that of any company doing business in this State. No "definite surrender values guaranteed" as an inducement to new business, but reference is made to the average amount paid on each surrendered policy, as shown by the New York Insurance Reports, 1869, as evidence of having paid larger surrender values, than has been given under a minimum "Definite Cash Surrender Value." Death losses have not occurred out of several hundred policy holkeys in this State, which fact must establish the better ability of the Company to pay larger dividends than companies having an excessive mortality, the result of a selection of bad risks. "Fictitious Dividends are not declared, but dividends are given from the actual surplus, in accordance with the Company's charter. The attention of the public is invited to the following comparison of cost, demonstrating the advantages over ordinary insurances, of the POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks; upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

TWENTY-ONE REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS COMPANY TO ALL OTHERS.

1. Its Cash assets are upwards of $43,000,000,000 00, and constantly increasing.
2. None of this is made up of Promissory Notes, as in many Companies.
3. Its Cash Income per annum is over $6,500,000 00, and steadily growing larger.
4. None of this is composed of the notes of hand of policy-holders, as is the case in many Companies.
5. It has paid to Widows and Orphans, and other claimants under policies on deceased members, about $4,000,000 00.
6. Such payments are made in Cash, and not partly in Cancelled Notes, as is the case in many Companies.
7. No deductions are made from the face of a Policy, for Premium Notes when it becomes a claim, as is the case in all Note Companies.
8. The sum of $3,500,000 00, and upwards, in cash divided among Policy-Holders, (this included the dividend for the present year,) as profits of the business.
9. All the profits of the business are annually divided among the assured Equitably, instead of being wholly or partially distributed among the Stockholders, as is the case in all "Mixed" and "Proprietary" Companies.
10. Dividends are invariably available, as cash in payment of Premiums.
11. The dividends are made from the start, and not postponed until the lapse of several years, as in many Companies.
12. The Society deals Equitably with its policy-holders.
13. The Equitable has made More progress since its organization than any other Life Company in the World.
14. Its risks have been so carefully selected, and its dealings so equitable, that it has never been obliged to contest the payment of a claim at law.
15. Its modes of applying dividends are more numerous and more advantageous than those of any other Company in the World.
16. It issues all the popular styles of policy, including "Tell Your Non-Forfeiture" and "Endowment Policies."
17. The amount of new business during the year, ending December 1, 1870, was $35,621,041.
18. Its Policies average larger in amount than those of any other Company, showing that Capitalists select the Equitable for purposes of investment.
19. The profits of the business are apportioned to the assured on the "Contribution Plan," which is conceded to be the only equitable mode of division, and not by the mode adopted by many Companies.
20. It is as liberal in the conduct of its business as is consistent with the safety of the assured, and does not sacrifice proper caution to an ambition to increase the nominal amount of its business, as is the case with many new Companies.
21. It is the favorite Company in the United States, as is shown by its new business last year, being nearer $13,000,000 greater than any other Company.

R. H. LEE,

BOOT AND SHOE MAKER,

Has taken charge of Mr. D. C. Murray's Custom Boot and Shoe Manufactory, where he will be pleased to see his old friends, Customers and every body who desires a number one pair of Boots, Gaiters or Shoes, made up in any style on this side of the Atlantic. Having had thirty years experience in this business he flatters himself that he cannot be excelled North or South. He refers to those who patronized him in the Fall of 1869, while manufacturing here, and every Chapel Hill student who has been there within the last thirty (30) years.
